DIASPORIC FASHION: GRACE W. BONNER

9 DECEMBER
19.30 – 21.30
LICHTHAL

This event explores themes such as style, representation, gender and identity in relation to the fashioned self and community. What forms of belonging does Diasporic Fashion express and make possible? In conversations with Anoma Whittaker, designer Grace Wales Bonner and stylist Majid Karrouch discuss themes such as racial belonging, queerness, blackness, spatial belonging and urban marginalization.

HIPHOP MUSEUM: HIP HOP & ACTIVISM

10 DECEMBER
11.30 – 18.00
LICHTHAL, STUDIO & SUBTROPEN

Hip hop keeps gaining influence as a global (counter)culture. Which changes does this influence bring about, and what is hip hop's importance for activism within and outside the Netherlands? Artists, performers, academics and tastemakers share their perspectives on stage. They discuss hip hop's relationship with citizenship and activism in talks and performances.

SYMPOSIUM | HIP HOP, PROTEST
CULTURE, INDIGENOUS & MARGINALIZED PEOPLE
11.30 – 14.30
STUDIO

In what ways does hip hop function as a methodology for resistance movements worldwide? This symposium looks into protest culture, marginalization and ways in which urban culture redefines the agenda of activist moments. With: Drezus, Lewis Borck, Martin Berger and others.

LECTURES | REWRITING
13.00 – 16.45
SUBTROPEN

A series of talks that showcase different perspectives on hip hop, activism, popular culture, youth and engagement. By Kiddo Cee, Fatima Warsame, Helene Christelle and Thomas Nijhuis.

TALKS & PERFORMANCES | HIP HOP &
ACTIVISM
14.00 – 18.00
LICHTHAL

As contemporary global culture, hip hop provides a platform for conversations about citizenship, heritage, activism and institutions. Artists, performers, hip-hop heads and scholars share their perspectives on stage, to reflect on and celebrate hip hop as a global cultural movement. With: Greg Tate, Stephane Ashpool, Mariana Hirschfeldt, Messih Hutak, Farida Sedoc and others.

WORKSHOP | DJ WORKSHOP FOR WOMEN
15.00 – 18.00
STUDIO

The workshop series DJ Workshops for Women aims to offer alternatives to the self-fashioning, intentionally inaccessible and intimidating myth of the DJ-god and wants to make DJ-ing approachable for women. This workshop is hosted by DJ Evelyn Rae (Stir It Up). Pre-registration only.

POP-UP EXPO | COLLECTING HIP HOP
11.30 – 18.00
LICHTHAL

Art by Farida Sedoc, animation by Aisha Madu and photography by Nadine Stijns.

RACISME'
14.00 – 18.00
LICHTHAL

This year a group of young creatives created a social media campaign in support of an inclusive celebration of Sinterklaas. They portrayed 200 people wearing a T-shirt with the text 'Zwarte Piet is racism'. Today, you can get your picture taken by Jasper Abels & Zoë Bab in their photo studio.
